Wednesday passed the following prenmble and resolutions on the subject:

Wegness, Vessels from all ports of these Northern Lakes have become more or less engaged in the commerce and carrying trade of Lake Superior, and especially in the iron and fron ore trades, of which the port of Marquette, on Lake Superior, is the place of shipment, and which trade has now become so large as to employ a large proportion of our lake vessels, so that the port of Marquette is already the seventh in PROSPECTUS FOR 1866.

The new year upon which we are about o other will usher th, an era of national our years of desperate conflict, the prin-iples which the LEADER, in common with ciples which the LEADER, in common with the patriotic citizens and soldiers of the country, has always announced and de-fended, have triumphed, and the war for the Union and Freedom has ended in vic-tory and peace. Secession and slavery have both been crushed, and our Republic, re-united and regenerated, saters upon a new and glorious career. The future is full of the promise of greatness to our new and glorious career. The future is full of the promise of greatness to our nation and of prosperity to its citizens. And yet the crass of our danger is not passed. The contest has only been trans-ferred from the military to the political arena. The wespons are ballots instead of bullets, the pen instead of the sword. to be performed—a work which for its mmense importance and gigantic diffiulties is only paralleled by that which we are just concluded. In this most of these great events—no man, rich or poor, can afford to be without a news--no man, rich or paper. It is an article of prime necessity in every household. Without it a man is half a century behind the age.

The Cleveland LEADER enters upon the twenty-second year of its existence with the brightest of prospects, and with a more widely-extended and well-deserved popularity than at any previous period in its history.
